

What is a Transfer of Land?

Transfers of Land are regulated under the Land Titles Act. Except for special types of ownership changes, like a transfer to a personal representative of an estate, a transfer of land form is required when you want to change the ownership of a property. For more information, visit the Transfer of Land page.

Filling out the forms

The checklist below has been created to assist with the completion of the form(s) commonly needed to complete a transfer of land: Transfer of Land. Use the checklist to ensure that you have all the necessary information required to complete the forms.

Transfer of Land (Form 8)
☐	The full name(s) of all the current owners of the property (called the transferor(s)).
☐	The full legal land description of the property (not the civic address).
☐	The amount of money paid for the transfer, if any (called the consideration).
☐	The full name(s) of all the new owners of the property (called the transferee(s)).
☐	The full address of all the new owners of the property (called the transferee(s)).
☐	The name and address of the person(s) who will witness the transferor(s) signature(s).
☐	A Foreign Ownership of Land declaration, if required (i.e. when the property is NOT located in a city, town, village, or summer village).

Additional forms
☐	If dower requirements apply; if there is only one current owner on the property, you will need one of the following: • Consent and Acknowledgement by Spouse, or • Dower Affidavit, or • Release of Dower Rights and Affidavit in Support of Dower Release, or • Court Order Dispensing with Dower, or • Statement in the Affidavit Re Value of Land that the transfer is from the married person to the married person and their spouse (only when adding the spouse to the title) or • Only one of the owners is transferring his/her interest

Important information

If the transfer of land is being completed by a personal representative of an estate, such as an Executor or Administrator, it will also require a completed Affidavit of Minors for Estates form.